

The question that we are often asked is, ‘What is a clarinet choir?’

The official answer to that is ‘it is an instrumental ensemble consisting entirely of instruments from the clarinet family’.

Blackwood Clarinets represent most members of the family – from the shrill Eb clarinet to the booming contra-bass clarinet. This gives the ensemble a wide range of musical textures.

We are based in Nottingham UK, with members drawn from a wide area of the East Midlands.

We play a wide variety of music from classical to jazz, show tunes to festive classics. Now under the direction of conductor Dan Watson, Blackwood performs all over the East Midlands, in both public concerts and private functions.

For our Supper Serenade concert we invite you to bring your own food and wine - then sit back and relax while we entertain you with music including Country Gardens, Shanandoah, Mr Blue Sky and Palladio.
