

Your Bramcote Liberal Democrat Candidates

Hannah Land

Hannah grew up locally before moving away to complete a degree in occupational therapy and worked in Greater Manchester for 12 years. She returned to Bramcote in 2016 to help care for her mum. In 2017 she joined the Liberal Democrats and quickly became involved with the local party. Hannah has a long held passion for serving the local community wherever she lives, including working with Street Angels, refugee projects, church youth groups and choirs.

Hannah is married to Adam and they enjoy dog walks in the various green spaces around the borough. She is an active member of St Nic's church, volunteering for projects associated with the church including Emmanuel House. Hannah sings with choirs in Nottingham and enjoys playing piano and other instruments. She participates in and leads singing events across the U.K. Hannah works for Nottingham University Hospitals NHS trust and has a passion for health care issues.

Ian Tyler

Ian spent his working life in the textile industry, after training with the National Coal Board and moving to Israel as a volunteer. He developed an interest in textiles and joined a Nottingham company as an Export correspondent. With work he travelled extensively in Scandinavia, Eastern Europe and the Middle East. He then moved from fashion fabrics to industrial garments and PPE. Ian is now retired, He served as a Bramcote councillor for 16 years. He has two children and 3 granddaughters, all of whom live in Australia.

Ian values his community and enjoys trying to improve it for the benefit of all. He has been involved with Neighbourhood Watch and chairs the Bramcote Park Community Cafe. He and his wife now have a refugee from Romania in his home; Appo, a Carpathian Shepherd dog, Appo is 7 months old and a delight but getting over bad times.

David Watts

David has lived in Bramcote for 22 years. He was a councillor on Broxtowe Borough council for 16 years, representing Bramcote until 2015. David has been a parent governor at Bramcote Hills Primary School, where both his children attended, and he has also been a director at both Attenborough Nature Reserve visitors centre and the Beeston Volunteer Bureau. He was the founder and first chair of the Bramcote Hills Park Community Cafe and remains a board member and trustee of the project.

David is married to Gill and they have two children who both attend local schools. He is a member of Trent Vineyard church and likes reading and photography. He is also a sports fan and a keen musician. By profession David is a solicitor and works for a firm based in Nottingham City Centre.

“In Bramcote it’s a two horse race between the Liberal Democrats and the Conservatives.”

“The Liberal Democrats are the only party that keep us in touch with what is happening locally.”

The Liberal Democrats exist to build and safeguard a fair, free and open society, in which we seek to balance the fundamental values of liberty, equality and community, and in which no one shall be enslaved by poverty, ignorance or conformity.

“Other parties only turn up at election time, but the Liberal Democrats are active all year round.”

“I expect honesty and integrity from my local councillors. That is what I get from the Liberal Democrats.”

The Conservatives won Bramcote in 2015 by just six votes from the Liberal Democrats. Only the Lib Dems can beat the Tories here.

“Whenever I have had a problem the local Liberal Democrats have been there to help.”

“As a Bramcote resident I want my councillors to be Bramcote residents. This is something that the Liberal Democrats offer and the Conservatives don’t.”